

My Baby Loves Me
(Maureen and Richard Hall)

It's a crazy world a hard life. But I don't care, I don't mind.
My body's shacking, it's tingling inside, because my baby's got that look in her eye.
She's enough for me, she's enough for any man. My baby loves me like no one can.

It's a crazy world, a hard life. I don't care. I don't' mind.
Roman candles like the forth of July, because my baby's got that look in his eye.
Lips like honey and dancing hands. My baby loves me like no one can.

(chorus)
Every time our eyes meet something stirs inside.
Every time we touch it's a magic carpet ride.
Every time we kiss it fills me with desire.
Every time we rock and roll it's like a raging fire.

She ain't no movie star, no spring chick. But I don't care it don't matter a bit.
The sweetest music's from the oldest guitar. Oh lord a mercy she makes me so very happy.
You have to understand God blessed this man. My baby loves me like no one can.

He ain't no Chippendale, he's a little be round, a little forgetful, it don't matter no how.
'Cause when he holds me I quiver like jelly. Let me tell you girls he has a magic belly.
This stud is welded to his wedding band. My baby loves me like no one can.

(repeat chorus)

She's my woman, she's my main squeeze. She's my flower and I'm her bee.
When I'm feeling frisky he's always there. He's my animal. He's my grizzly bear.
You have to understand, doesn't bet any better than.
My baby loves me like no one can.

(repeat chorus)
